

Craig Campbell MCKENZIE
Independent Director

SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE

Craig Campbell McKenzie is a retired chief executive officer of Investec Bank (Mauritius) Limited, a subsidiary of a leading international banking group that provides a range of financial products and services to clients across various markets. He has over 30 years of experience in the banking and financial sector, with expertise in managing all aspects of banking risk. He is also a chartered financial analyst and holds a master's degree in agricultural economics from the University of Natal, South Africa.

Craig started his career as an associate director at the Development Bank of Southern Africa, where he was involved in infrastructure project finance for various development initiatives in the region. He then joined Investec Bank Limited as a consultant in the treasury and specialized finance divisions, where he advised clients on various financial solutions and transactions. In 2000, he was appointed as the chief executive officer of Investec Bank (Mauritius) Limited, where he led the bank's operations and strategy for 20 years until his retirement in 2020.

Craig is currently a director and trustee of several companies and trusts, including Lango Real Estate Limited, a real estate investment fund operating in Africa and Forty-Two Point Two Limited, a company with financial interests in international asset management